

Sunday 18th July – Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Prayers written by Pauline Swindle

As a royal priesthood let us pray to the Father through Christ who ever lives to intercede for us.

Reveal your kingdom among the nations, may peace abound and justice flourish.

We pray for our world, for those countries who are struggling because of natural disasters brought on by climate change ,or continual conflict and the heartbreak and hopelessness of many lives because of man's inhumanity to man.

We pray for the peacemakers, and aid agencies working to bring justice, healing, and peace to all in need.

Your name be hallowed

Your kingdom come.

Send down upon us the gift of the Spirit and renew your Church with power from on high.

We pray for all who lead us in worship, for our ministry team, and our Church family here. Restore us and strengthen us and make us what you would have us be.

We pray for Ryan who is being baptised today may he go forward on his Christian journey assured with the love and support from each of us here, and the knowledge that you will be his constant companion.

We pray for our children coming to the end of this school year. We remember especially year 6 who will be stepping out into new schools next term. Grant that they may grow healthy and strong in the knowledge of your love.

Your name be hallowed.

Your kingdom come.

Deliver the oppressed, strengthen the weak, heal and restore your creation.

Father we know that all healing comes from you, and we pray for all doctors and nurses, for all who work in our hospitals and medical centres. We pray too for those engaged in medical research who have developed vaccines to combat the pandemic.

We pray for those in need known to us Jan Banks, Ken Cathcart, Dorothy Lawrence, Hazel Chapman, John Leaworthy, Pat Bolton, Donald Rooke, Ellen Vigar, and Roger Hoare. Grant them health of body and mind, and peace in their hearts.

We pray for all who are mourning the loss of a loved one, the family and friends of Hazel Curtis, Doreen Tye, Margaret King, Michael East, Derek Kirby. Look on the distress of those who mourn and ease the pain of their loss.

We pray for those named in our Memorial book who are remembered this week

Frederick Boot, Harold Curtis, and Gillian Cathcart.

Your name be hallowed.

Your kingdom come.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the Church on earth, we join our prayers with all the saints in glory.

Your name be hallowed

Your kingdom come.
