

Sunday 10 May – Sixth Sunday of Easter

Prayers

In joy and hope we pray.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That our risen Saviour may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection and that we may follow Christ as the way, the truth and the life.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That isolated and persecuted churches may find fresh strength in the good news of Easter, that they may be kept safe from persecution, even though forced to worship in secret.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That God may grant us humility to be subject to one another in Christian love, we pray that we may follow Christ's commandment to love one another as he loved us.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That he may provide for those who lack food, work, or shelter and that those in authority may work together for the good of all to bring sustenance to all in need.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That by his power war and famine may cease through all the world, lifting up to you the whole Middle East area, Ukraine and all other war-torn parts of our world that peace may prevail.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That he may reveal the light of his presence to the sick,
the weak and the dying,
to comfort and strengthen them bringing before you especially today

Jericho Hasieber, Sarah, David Richards and Andy and Jean. From our memorial book we also remember and give thanks for the life of Sylvia Chislett.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

That he may send the fire of the Holy Spirit upon his people,

so that we may bear faithful witness to his resurrection.

We pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
