

Sunday 13 September – Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity

Prayers

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace that comes from God alone,
for the unity of all peoples,
and for our salvation,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the Church of Christ, for Guli and Roger our Bishops, for Archdeacon Ruth and all our ministry team and for the whole people of God,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the nations of the world, especially those where there are wars and insurrections, for Charles our King and for all in authority,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this village of Tiptree,
for our neighbours and our friends,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us,
and for the wisdom and will to conserve it,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm,
for the widowed and orphans,
for the sick and suffering,
for Jericho Hasieber, Sarah, Jean, Graham Chislett, Faheem, Owen and for all in any need,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed,
for the unemployed and the destitute,
for prisoners and captives,
and for all who remember and care for them,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the dying, for those who mourn the death of a loved one, including from our community Andy, Sarah Pannett and Ruth le Poidevin, for the faithful whom we entrust to the Lord in hope, remembering from our memorial book Angela Joy Brooks, George Carlile, Patricia Coates and Paul Ridgewell as we look forward to the day when we share
the fullness of the resurrection,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Rejoicing in the communion of Luke and of all the saints,
let us commend ourselves, and one another,
and all our life, to God.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
